

Now We Run Like Crazy

The story is told of a tender-hearted fellow who was driving along when he spied a boy trying to ring a doorbell. He watched as the little boy stretched, he jumped, he tried, but the button was just too high. The man stopped the car, put on his emergency flashers and hurried up the walk. He carefully boosted the lad up who showed his appreciation by hammering on the doorbell with delight. The man could see stirring in the house as the little boy wiggled from his arms. Puzzled, he looked down at the boy and asked, "What are we doing now?" to which the little boy responded, "NOW WE RUN LIKE CRAZY!"

Have you ever wanted to help a child but didn't know exactly how? Have you wondered which appeal to answer or who will use your contribution wisely? WCCH provides a Christian family environment for children who need a home. Some are orphans. Some have families who deeply love them but need help to overcome problems in their lives. Our program operates very efficiently. Our cost of caring for a child is less than half the average cost of residential child-care throughout the tri-state area. Over the years, we have provided a home for many children who had no ability to pay.

We invite you to come and visit us at the Woodburn Christian Children's Home. Tour the grounds. Meet our staff and children. Take home a video and an Annual Report. Ask God to guide you in the choices you make.

The Woodburn Christian Children's Home receives no government funds. We operate entirely on donations from individuals, churches, business and organizations. We are partners, together, in a vital ministry. Without your help, it could not be done.
