

RIBBON CUTTING

Monthly Newsletter

Dear WCCH Family,

WCCH exists to connect discouraged children to the love of Jesus. We do this one day at a time within our Christian families. The following reflection, written by Zaysha (15), reminds us why we do what we do.

When I came to WCCH, I had several things that I needed to work on such as manners, anger issues, and self-control. I would usually get mad all the time and talk back to my house parents, and I would burp terribly at the table. When I first came to WCCH, I would talk about how I am only staying for one year! I thought, at first, that it was not for me with all the rules and things that I had to do. Recently, I have been changing; a year has gone by and I can tell that I am not the same anymore. When I look in the mirror, I see myself as more mature. I have learned through Christ that my parents are in control and I should honor them in the decisions they make, and I have decided I am fine with it! I have gone back and forth between what I want to be when I'm older; like a librarian, or a singer or even an actress but I can't really decide! All I know is that God has great plans for me and He's not done yet. Now that I've been here for a year and school is coming to an end, I would love to stay another year at WCCH. They have taught me a lot on being a Christian and caring about my education. Thank you, WCCH!

Learning and Counseling Center (LCC)

The LCC is ready for ministry! Through the grace of God and hard work of faithful Christians, generations of children will discover God's restorative love within this new ministry environment.

Hundreds of families, churches and businesses have given sacrificially with the goal of helping abused and neglected children overcome pain and suffering.

Now it is time to cut the ribbon and celebrate what God has accomplished.

Please join us Saturday, April 29 at 11:00 AM.
(24902 Notestine Road, Woodburn, Indiana)

The celebration also coincides with the 50th anniversary of WCCH.

The goal is to host representatives from at least one hundred churches, families and businesses. The event will encourage your faith as we celebrate God and this strategic Kingdom advancement. We will gather to pray, provide tours, and meet the WCCH families (children) - a special love offering will be collected.

In March, we announced a $250,000 gift was received toward the capital campaign. The ensuing challenge was to match the generosity with new donations. Thus far, we received $69,431 in response to the challenge. Please consider helping us meet the goal!
